

CONNECTING FAITH AND LIFE

FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN | YOUTH | FAMILY | ADULT

KEY POINT

Isaiah's call story and commissioning reminds us that God's

Word is not an abstract or timeless truth but a particular message for a specific time and place.

KEY VERSE

Isaiah 6:8
Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

CONNECT

Name one thing that happened today that seemed special. Name one thing that happened today that seemed boring.

READ

Isaiah 6:8

Storybook Bible - page 166 (Isaiah's call)

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

SHARE

Isaiah encountered God in the temple, and God sent him out with a message. Who have you encountered today? Did you share any messages today?

DO

Draw pictures of what you think God looks like. Share them as a family.

PRAY

Sending God, You call us by name, and we want to serve others. You ask us to serve, and we share what we have. You lead us by example, and we want to love our neighbors. Help us as we serve, share and love. Amen.

BLESS

Mark one another with the sign of the cross on each other's hands or forehead, and say, "God will be with you wherever you go. Amen."
