

CONNECTING FAITH AND LIFE

FAITH FORMATION FOR CHILDREN | YOUTH | FAMILY | ADULT

KEY POINT

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God makes a promise that someday all people will know God and God will forget all sin. The prophet helps us see the world as it is, but also the future as it will be. God's love and forgiveness will always have the final word in this world.

KEY VERSE

Jeremiah 31:33-34

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

CONNECT

What is something that you loved about today? What is something that you did not love today?

READ

Jeremiah 31:33-34

Storybook Bible -no story directly relates to this scripture

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

SHARE

God called the people to repent, to change their ways. What was a change you made today? What is a change you want to make tomorrow?

DO

Make a card for someone to share a message of love with them.

PRAY

Take turns going back and forth or from person to person, saying, "God is great, God is good, thank you God for _____." See how long you can keep it going.

BLESS

Mark one another with the sign of the cross on each other's hands or forehead, and say, "You have been marked by the love of God forever. Amen."
